

AGENDA

Title 5 Updates: Where Research Meets Practice

Holiday Inn, Taunton - February 6, 2019

8:30am Registration & Breakfast

9:00am Welcome & Introduction

9:15am MassDEP's Evolving Role for Local BOHs and the General Public
Claire Golden, Environmental Engineer, MassDEP

10:15am Break

10:30am Clearing Up the Waters

Nitrogen Removal in Onsite Septic Systems and Their Application in Nitrogen-Sensitive Areas: What You Should Know

George Heufelder, MA Alternative Septic System Test Center, Barnstable County Department of Health and Environment

Phosphorus Removal in the Onsite Septic System - the Next Challenge for Protecting Freshwater Resources

George Heufelder, MA Alternative Septic System Test Center, Barnstable County Department of Health and Environment

11:30am Pharmaceuticals and Contaminants of Emerging Concern in Domestic Wastewater and Their Effects on Septic Systems

Dr. David Reckhow, Ph.D., Professor, UMass Amherst College of Engineering, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

12:15pm Lunch (gluten free options available upon request)

1:15pm Tracking the Performance of Innovative Alternative Septic Systems in Your Town: If You Aren't Watching Them, They Aren't Working

Emily-Michele Olmstead, Project Specialist, MA Alternative Septic System Test Center, Barnstable County Department of Health and Environment

2:00pm A Case Study of an Innovative Alternative Septic System

Megan Dean, Marketing Coordinator, Eljen Corporation

3:30pm Adjourn

Contact Hours

MA RS and MA CHO: 6.0

REHS/RS, SE, SI: 5.0