

SAFETY TOOLKIT FOR LOCAL PUBLIC HEALTH OFFICIALS

BE SAFE & BE PREPARED

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 2019
8:00AM TO 3:30PM

COURTYARD BY MARRIOTT
75 FELTON STREET
MARLBOROUGH, MA 01752

This training will include real public health scenarios that will focus on:

- Strategies for effective communications
- Risk awareness & self protection for field inspections
- Workplace violence & prevention
- Effective stress management & situational de-escalation
- Responding to behavioral issues
- Women leading government: encouraging the development of women in local government
- Real-life public health experiences & lessons learned from local public health inspectors

Presenters

Janice (JJ) Durham, Co-Founder, Pathways to Restorative Communities and Independent Consultant

Hilary Hackbart, Health & Safety Trainer/Inspector, MA
Department of Labor Standards

Patricia Strizak, Health and Safety Trainer, MassCOSH

Rick Rabin, Trainer and Technical Consultant, MassCOSH

Robin Magner, Health Inspector, Braintree Health Department, and Food Inspector, Hingham Health Department

Cheryl Odom, Building Inspector & Supervisor of Building Inspection Program, Boston Inspectional Services Dept

Jayne Smith, Health Agent, Berkshire Public Health Alliance

Julie Jacobson, Town Manager, Auburn

Kate Fitzpatrick, Town Manager, Needham

Cost

$65 for members of MEHA and MHOA
$85 for non-members

Includes coffee & lunch.

Registration

Visit <http://trainings.mhoa.com/>

You may still register online if you are paying by check

CEU Credits

Available electronically for RS, REHS, CHO, and RN.

Refunds: Cancellations must be received at least 5 days prior to seminar to receive a refund.
Inclement weather: Please check the MEHA and MHOA websites for updates related to weather.

Hosts

Sponsor

Questions?

Email Dawn Sibor at dsibor@mhoa.com